

CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

2013, 2014 & 2015

Finding Value in the Côtes de Bordeaux. Report by Jane Anson,
Decanter's Bordeaux correspondent

The home of good value and enjoyable wines, the AOC Côtes de Bordeaux has the fourth largest sales of red wines in France.

The Côtes draws together wines made from four separate areas of Blaye, Cadillac, Castillon and Francs that lie on the Right Bank of Bordeaux along the Dordogne and Garonne rivers. Over 900 winemakers make their home here, farming an area of 10,000 hectares and producing around 10% of Bordeaux's overall output per year. The vast majority (97%) of the wine here is red, but there are also some excellent white wines. And the spirit of the Côtes is clear – these are welcoming, family-run properties that prioritise not only making wonderful wines, but welcoming visitors to discover what are some of the most beautiful parts of Bordeaux. These four regions are part of the fabric of Bordeaux's history, and yet are also part of its renaissance, making some of the most exciting wines of modern Bordeaux.

On wine labels, look out for either the general Côtes de Bordeaux appellation, which is becoming an increasingly strong promise of value and quality, or one of the four individual names of Blaye, Cadillac, Castillon and Francs, indicating that the grapes are grown only in that specific area. All tend to be from small properties (the average size is around 10 hectares), and most have a majority of the Merlot grape in their red wines. This is, however, the land of experimentation, with many young winemakers, and increasing numbers now use the more unusual varieties of Malbec or Cabernet Franc alongside the more usual Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. The whites tend to be blends of Sauvignon Blanc, Semillon, and sometimes Sauvignon Gris or Muscadelle.

These are richly textured and interesting wines that have a story to tell, so it's always worth looking at the back label, visiting the website, or heading out to Bordeaux to visit.

There are excellent Maisons des Vins in all corners of the Côtes that offer regular tastings and stock the vast majority of the wines selected here. The Bordeaux region as a whole is experiencing a renaissance in wine tourism, with around five million visitors per year, and the Côtes offer some of its most enriching and exhilarating experiences.

This is some of the oldest viticultural terroir in Bordeaux, with many châteaux dating back to the 12th century and earlier. There are Roman remains to be found around the city of Blaye, along with a UNESCO World Heritage Citadelle overlooking the Gironde Estuary. Cadillac and Francs are full of historic châteaux and ancient churches that date back to the Middle Ages, while Castillon is full of rolling countryside as it reaches out towards the green Dordogne, with towering limestone hills that offer perfect bedrock for vines. There are marathons, hikes, markets and various events where winemakers can share their passion and know-how with visitors.

The tasting below gathered together over 220 wines from: for the reds, the 2014 and 2013 vintages, and for the whites the 2015 and 2014. These were then cut down to around 100 final choices.

These are three vintages with real variations in style, with the full range from light, fresh, early drinking bottles to more powerful structured wines to age. The 2013 vintage for the reds was a little bumpy in places, but we have narrowed down the field to some excellent examples, full of light fresh fruit and unforced pleasure. The 2014 vintage was, in contrast, almost uniformly excellent, and you will find plenty of wines offering both firm rich fruits and soft, round tannins. The whites in 2014 also show some great success, with plenty to get excited about. And while the brilliant 2015 reds are still ageing in cellars right now, the whites on show seem hugely promising – the acidities a little lower than in 2014 perhaps, with a gourmet take on the Côtes.

Wines to try: Whites BLAYE CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

Château la Rose Bellevue Prestige, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

Bright, clean, good grip, sparkling citrus flavours, this has been oak aged for five months but with great restraint, 85% Sauvignon Blanc, 15% Muscadelle. A lovely example of a Blaye white, from an always-reliable producer.

Drink now-2017 Aic 13.5%abv

Château des Tourtes Cuvée Prestige, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

This gets to the point straight away and is easily one of my favorites tasted. Lots of interest, from fresh white flowers to lemon rind, lots of interest with a touch of flinty reduction on the very first nose. Drink now-2017 Aic 14%abv

Château Haut Canteloup, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2015

90 Highly recommended

£9.90 The French Wine Project,

www.thefrenchwineproject.com

Distinct citrus flavours, with touches of gooseberry and asparagus Sauvignon, this is almost tart but manages to be mouthwatering instead, good example of a northern hemisphere Sauvignon, with grip and presence. 85% Sauvignon Blanc, 10% Sauvignon Gris and 5% Muscadelle. Drink now-2017 Aic 13.5%abv.

La Révélation des Vignobles Denis Lafon, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

89 Recommended

www.denislafon.com

A lovely bit of lift and a touch of reduced expression. The 50% Sauvignon Blanc here expresses green-tinged citrus and lime fruits and is zippy with lift, brought into balance with 50% Semillon. Six months in new oak gives a roundness without sacrificing the edge. Great stuff from Denis Lafon. Drink now-2017 Aic 12.5%abv

Château Manon La Lagune, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2015

89 Recommended

www.myliko.co.uk, Musgrave SuperValu

Straw colour, with a smooth rich mouthfeel from the off. This has high aromatics of freshly cut grass. Good typicity, making the most of its 100% Sauvignon Blanc. Drink now-2017 Aic 13%abv

Château Haut Grelot, Cuvée Sélection, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2015

89 Recommended

Bancroft Wines, www.bancroftwines.com

A rich and ripe expression of the 2015 vintage. This is 100% Sauvignon Blanc given the full treatment – so six months oak ageing, with the fermentation done in new oak (before half of the wine passes into one year old barrels for the ageing, and owner Julien Bonneau cleverly using the new barrels for his red wine). Drink now-2017 Aic 13%abv

Château Lacaussade St Martin, Cuvée Trois Moulins, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2015

89 Recommended

www.lacaussade-saintmartin.com

Smudged smoky extract on the nose, this is citrus grilled over vine shoots. Has personality and grip, and a soft candyfloss finish. Distinctive, perhaps because from an unusual blend of 80% Semillon and 20% Sauvignon Blanc, aged in 400 litre barrels with regular lees stirring. Drink now-2017 Aic 13.5%abv

Château des Matards, Cuvée Quentin, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

88 Recommended

www.chateau-des-matards.com

Cheerful sunflower colour, with a silky and sweet mouthfeel. A white wine that is full of personality, from 100% Sauvignon Blanc first vinified and then aged for nine months in oak. Majoring on exotic fruit rather than the more typically Bordeaux expression of Sauvignon, very enjoyable. Drink now-2017 Aic 14%abv

Château Maison Neuve, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

88 Recommended

www.chateau-maisonneuve.com

Crisp and clean, a little sour perhaps, gooseberry tart rather than fool, but on the mid palate a lovely citrus flesh comes into play, and this turns into a very pretty wine. 100% Sauvignon Blanc, on the fresh scale. Unoaked, gentle lees stirring. Drink now-2017 Aic 13%abv

Château Montfollet Le Valentin, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

87 Recommended

www.chateaux-solidaires.com

Rich, round, silky, but here also a nice grip of lemon and a sizzle of rosemary spicing. Enjoyable blend of 60% Sauvignon Blanc and 40% Semillon from winemaker Dominique Raimond. Drink now-2017 Aic 14%abv

Château Berthenon, Sauvignon, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2015

87 Recommended

www.chateauberthenon.com

From the 2015 vintage, this has a classic Sauvignon nose, freshly cut grass, good spiciness without being overpowering. This is made up of 95% Sauvignon Blanc with a 5% squeeze of Sauvignon Gris. Unoaked, focusing on the character of the grape. Drink now-2017 Aic 13%abv

Château Dubraud, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

86 Recommended

www.chateaudubraud.com (sell online)

This is rich and silky smooth, it is unoaked but has regular stirring of the lees to fatten up the texture of the wine. 70% Sauvignon Blanc; 15% Semillon and 15% Muscadelle from winemakers Celine and Alain Vidal. Drink now-2017 Aic 12.5%abv

Tutiac Sélection, Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

Fragrant on the nose, with white flowers and gentle curling citrus. This fades quickly, but is pretty. 100% Sauvignon Blanc, unoaked. Drink now-2017 Aic 12%abv

Château Haut Bertinerie,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

85 Commended
www.myliko.co.uk
 From an excellent estate that I often enjoy, this is not quite up to their 2013 standard for the white, but still an enjoyable wine with well defined flavours. 100% Sauvignon Blanc, aged in barrel for around 10 months with regular lees stirring. Sauvignon is often a strong finisher but this ends just a little soft. Drink now-2017 AIC 13%abv

Château Bel Air La Royère,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

85 Commended
www.bel-air-la-royere.com Approx £13 (red wine 2011 vintage) www.cadmanfinewines.co.uk, (red wine 2012 vintage) www.wineye.com
 Lemon curd roundness, smoked almond and a twist of lime. Combine that with ripe grapes and you have this attractively full expression. Could do with a mouthwatering finish perhaps, but this is good stuff. 100% Sauvignon Blanc with just under half seeing some barrel ageing. Drink now-2017 AIC 13%abv

Château Les Bertrands, Cuvée Prestige,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

85 Commended
www.chateaubertrands.com
 This is a foodie white, round, soft and sexy but lacks a little punch. 100% Sauvignon Blanc with six months in French oak. Drink now-2017 AIC 13%abv

FRANCS CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

Château Les Charmes Godard,
Francs Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

89 Recommended
www.nicolas-thienpont.com
 A small estate owned by Nicolas Thienpont that consistently produces excellent white wines. Majoring on straw and freshly cut grass, the green side of Sauvignon is on display. I'm not complaining - the juiciness is highly welcome, especially as it is underpinned by peach flesh, and rounded out by a touch of oak. Drink now-2017 AIC 13%abv

Château Tifayne,
Francs Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

87 Recommended
www.tifayne.com
 Pale straw colour, strong hay on the nose, this is 100% Muscadelle and is unusual, a little wild and rustic. Rose on the finish. Enjoyable, just clear your mind of expectations of a Bordeaux white. Drink now-2017 AIC 12%abv

Cuvée Prestige,

Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014
 91 Highly recommended
www.braulterie.com
 Firmly extracted with great skill, this is really an excellent example of the quality to be found in hidden corners of Blaye, a wine to savour. Lovely, a touch of high acidity on finish but even this gives you a mouthwatering close of play and will make it a good food-pairing choice. 65% Merlot, 30% Malbec, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon. Drink now-2020 AIC 13.5%abv

Château Tour St Germain, Cuvée Élégance,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

91 Highly recommended
www.tour-st-germain.com
 A delicious wine, snapping with rich fruit, blackberry and bilberry that builds in intensity, playing with a second tier of flavour. Good balance overall, this is not trying too hard and is a great example of Blaye. From a blend of 65% Merlot, 25% Malbec, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon, aged in oak. Drink now-2020 AIC 14%abv

La Révélation des Vignobles Denis Lafon,

 Rich deep purple in colour, firm and nicely definted on the nose, followed by lovely autumnal brambly fruit held in place by rich tannic structure. This stays full in flavour right through the palate and is confident, highly enjoyable. 90% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. 12 months in new oak. Drink now-2019 AIC 14%abv

Château La Bretonnière,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

 Dark, rich and velvety purple. This has oak but it's balanced, modern, with attractive brushes of tar, bitter chocolate and coffee. Certainly this has impact, big tannins, can age another five years which is not the case with all of these. Be aware it is ambitious, it's one to carafe. 85% Merlot, 12% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Malbec. Drink now-2020 AIC 14%abv

Château Haut Bertinerie,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

89 Recommended
www.myliko.co.uk
 The white wine tasted from this estate showed a truly excellent 2013 vintage, but here the red 2014 blows the socks off this estate's 2013, with good ripe tannins, plush strands of damsons and black cherries. Well worked and well extracted. 60% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon. New oak for around nine months. Always a name to trust in the Côtes. Drink now-2019 AIC 14%abv

Château les Grands Maréchaux,
Blaye Côtes de Bordeaux 2014

 Highly extracted but expertly done, rich damson,

tight tannins, some lift, a little drying on the very finish but this is really a lovely wine to be enjoyed right now and over the next few years. Stéphane Derenoncourt consults at this estate, made from a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc aged 50% in oak, grown on clay-limestone soils. Drink now-2019 AIC 13.8%abv

 Deft touch, clean and textured raspberry fruit, a sense of freshness brings the whole wine into focus. 75% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc, 56% Malbec. Accomplished winemaking from vines grown on hillsides that line the Garonne riverside. Also tasted the Prelude du Château le Grand Moulin, which was enjoyable but I would go for this classic château version. Drink now-2019 AIC 13.5%abv

 Located in a pretty spot close to the Gironde estuary, Nicolas Grégoire is owner of this 13th century estate. The wine has pretty violet reflections, and the fruit has been fleshed out, lively, clear vibrancy with a good five years ahead of it. Promising. 90% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc. Drink now-2020 AIC 13.5%abv

Vanilla edging on the oak fairly evident, but this is a 2013 that has done a pretty good job of balancing things out - with the added bonus of a dash of spicy Malbec. Grab a pizza, and enjoy some early drinking. 65% Merlot, 25% Malbec, 10% Cabernet France aged in one-third new oak. I also tasted an enjoyed the 2014 vintage. Drink now-2018 Aic 13%abv
